RESOURCES FOR RESIDENTS

Bucks County Drug & Alcohol Commission, Inc. is available to help with any questions, concerns and needed resources.

Please contact our Approval of Care Department at 215-444-2730 (Monday – Friday from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm).

The information below will help guide you in connecting with drug and/or alcohol treatment, as well as give some additional resources. Adult and adolescent services are available throughout Bucks County. Visit www.bcdac.org for information and resources.

The first step in accessing treatment is to have a drug and alcohol assessment to determine the type of treatment and recovery plan needed. Assessments will occur in person or via telehealth. For more information, please call our Approval of Care Department at 215-444-2730 or visit www.bcdac.org. If treatment is needed after-hours, you or your family member can go to or call Gaudenzia Lower Bucks (24/7).

- To access treatment for those who have private health insurance, call the number on the back of the insurance card listed under Mental Health/Substance Abuse to find an in-network provider.
- To access treatment if you have Medical Assistance or do not have insurance, please call one of the agencies listed to the left. Individuals who are considered a priority population, such as pregnant women who use substances, persons who inject drugs, overdose survivors, Veterans and adolescents, are exempt from any treatment limitations. Preferential treatment is given to pregnant females.

An additional resource is Bucks Human Services Connect – The Hub. The Hub provides access to all human services resources, in-person and virtually, for Bucks County residents, their families and those who support them. The Hub is located on the first floor of the Administration Building in Doylestown, Monday through Friday from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm. Call 215-348-6201 or email TheHub@buckscounty.org.

FAMILY SUPPORTS

The Southern Bucks Family Resource Center, through PRO-ACT in Bristol, PA, provides support and assistance to family and friends of those with a loved one experiencing an alcohol or substance use disorder. In addition, they offer a variety of groups focusing on understanding addiction, including a Family Education Program, Understanding Recovery and the many pathways to recovery for their loved ones. Call 1-800-221-6333 for more information.

BCARES Family Connect is a group of family members who all have a loved one with a substance use disorder. The goal of Family Connect is to support families and loved ones of persons suffering from substance use disorders by sharing their lived experiences and connecting them to resources to help in their journey. Family Connect volunteers are available 24/7 by telephone, text or email (BCARESFamilyConnect@gmail.com).

Free family education and support groups are available to help family members of individuals with substance use disorder. Call our office at 215-444-2700 or contact BCARES Family Connect for details.

CENTERS OF EXCELLENCE

A Center of Excellence (COE) is an agency identified to help ensure that underinsured and uninsured individuals with substance use disorder stay in treatment to receive follow-up care and are supported within their communities. There are two Centers of Excellence in Bucks County: St. Luke's Penn Foundation, Inc. (267-404-5990) and Family Service Association of Bucks County (215-757-6916).
