YES! Camper Code of Conduct

Town of Edgewood Parks & Recreation department is committed to providing campers with opportunities for fun activities and friendship. In order to maintain a positive and safe environment, all campers are expected to participate and follow this YES! code of conduct:

Be Prepared by...

- ☺ Wearing appropriate clothing and shoes to camp each day.
- ☺ Coming to camp ready for fun and new friendships.
- ☺ Being ready to try new experiences and activities.

Be Respectful by...

- ☺ Treating all campers and staff with courtesy and kindness.
- ☺ Including all campers in activities with a smile and friendship.
- ☺ Listening to staff directions and to other campers' ideas and opinions.
- ☺ Treating everyone's belongings with care and thoughtfulness.

Be Safe by...

- ☺ Staying with your group and your counselors at all times.
- ☺ Following the rules and being kind to others at all times,
- ☺ Informing camp staff if you have difficulty with another camper, activity, or situation.

I understand the YES! experience should be fun and friendly for ALL campers, and that if my behavior or actions do not follow the code of conduct that these consequences may result:

1. Verbal counseling/redirection from camp staff
2. Timeout from scheduled activities
3. Camp Report (Parent/Guardian Notification)
4. Parent/Guardian conference with Program Director or Town Staff member
5. Suspension or dismissal from camp

I, the parent/guardian of the child below, have reviewed these rules with my child to assure he/she understands and can/will follow the YES! Summer Program Code of Conduct.
