BACKGROUND:

The Centers for Disease Control (CDC) has released guidelines for fall gatherings and holidays in the context of COVID-19, which places traditional door-to-door trick-or-treating in a high-risk category for the spread of the coronavirus. Staff seeks guidance from Council as to the disposition of Trick-or-Treating in the Town of Gordonsville for this Halloween, which will occur on Saturday, October 31, 2020.

How does Council wish to proceed in this regard?
