Mayor Promotes 3 from Police Department

Today, Mayor James J. Fiorentini held a ceremony in the Mayor's Office to promote seventeen year veteran of the department, Sargent Stephen Dougherty to the position of Lieutenant, twenty year veteran of the department, John Spero to the position of Sargent and eleven year veteran to the department, Wayne Tracy to the position of Sargent. There were family and friends on hand to celebrate the appointments.

Mayor Fiorentini stated:

“It makes me proud to promote officers from our police department. We have smart, hardworking men and woman protecting our city.

“Our police officers demonstrate their commitment to our city every day. I am pleased to continue to promote officers from within our police department, these promotions are well deserved.”
